

BBVRVG Privacy Statement

We are committed to creating a safe, respectful, and well-managed environment for all members—both on and off the court. Protecting your personal information is a key part of that commitment.

When you join BBVRVG volleyball group, we may collect personal details such as your name, contact information, and participation preferences. This allows us to organise matches efficiently, communicate important updates, and ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience for everyone.

We take privacy very seriously and apply reasonable safeguards to protect your information from loss, misuse, or unauthorised access. That said, no system is completely immune to risk. By participating in the group, you acknowledge that while we work to minimise exposure, there remains a possibility—however unlikely—of data being accessed or disclosed beyond our control.

To maintain the safety and integrity of the group, we reserve the right to monitor communications, manage member participation, and take appropriate action where necessary. In certain circumstances, information may be disclosed if required by law or if needed to protect the wellbeing, safety, or rights of our members and organisers.

Most importantly, we do NOT sell or commercially exploit your personal information. Your data is used solely to support the functioning and community spirit of the group.

By being part of this volleyball group, you are not only accepting these terms—you are joining a community built on trust, accountability, and shared enjoyment of the game.

If you have any concerns, or if you would like to access, update, or remove your information, you are welcome to contact us at any time.
